HISTOIRES ÉTONNANTES

Language level: Low intermediate to intermediate (Grades 6 through 10)
Interest level: Ages 8 and up

CINQ HISTOIRES ÉTONNANTES

Low-intermediate to intermediate (Grades 6 and up).
Five 350-word true stories in one book

This anthology contains five very different and fascinating stories all based on true reports. Two sea stories, Le casse du siècle, the mystery of the Crop Circles and the mystery of the Bermuda Triangle.

Written in clear, simple French, richly illustrated with drawings, photos and maps, the book is made up of five short stories all based on true events. Each story features its own end-of-book exercises and lexicon. 52 pages. Free teacher's key with order.

Emma Richards, 28, aboard her Open 60, at the start of leg 4 of the Around Alone race. She is facing 40 days alone in the most isolated and dangerous seas on earth – the Southern Ocean.

Crab fishing on the Bering Sea, one of the most dangerous jobs in the World.

Day 5. Despair has set in. Alone in a capsized sailboat in the middle of the Southern Ocean, battered by incessant storm waves, frostbitten and exhausted, Tony Bullimore must face the grim reality of his situation: Rescue now will be nothing short of miraculous.

Read about the sailors who engage in one of the most gruelling sporting events known to man: Round-the-world single-handed sailboat racing. Four months alone, much of it spent in the most isolated and dangerous place on earth - the Southern Ocean.

NOUS, LES JEUNES!

Language level: Low intermediate/intermediate (Grades 7 and up)
Interest level: Ages 12 and up

Four humorous stories about a group of teenagers. Each title contains end-of-book exercises and a French-English lexicon.

A cast of teenage students experiences a roller coaster ride of hilarious situations in these fun and meaningful sitcoms in "bande dessinée" format. Students will learn to replace violent responses with conflict resolution strategies, deceit with honesty, self-pity with confidence and selfishness with generosity.

The zany characters in "Nous, les Jeunes" test friendships, walk a tightrope when trying to resolve conflicts, feel the heat when they don't treat each other with honesty, and learn relationship skills and problem-solving skills.

The high interest/low vocabulary, attractive, full colour comic book readers are in a format students associate with reading for fun! Students and teachers love these readers! Step by step graded activities as well as audio dramatizations of the stories are sold separately. Books include activities and a French-English lexicon. Audio is available for Chien et chat and Les Durs.

CLÉOPÂTRE-LES-BAINS

Sami Kélada

Les éditions Scaramouche are proud to present Cléopâtre-les-Bains, a collection of short stories set in 1950s Alexandria.

The author, Sami Kélada, transports us back to his native Egypt at a time when a vibrant francophone community thrived in both Alexandria and Cairo.

A consummate master of style and imagery, Kélada paints for us in deft and brilliant brushstrokes a number of critical moments in the adolescent life of Karim, his complex and engaging protagonist.

«Kélada fait bien vivre les premiers conflits de Karim, son idéalisme orgueilleux et ses premières peines d'amour. Il montre aussi à travers ce personnage combien est insolite la puissante nostalgie qui nous ramène à jamais aux blessures et aux joies de l'enfance.»

Colleges and universities may select from two editions of Cléopâtre-les-Bains. The first contains four unedited, unabridged and unexpurgated NOUVELLES. The second, featuring three of the stories, has been edited and includes content questions, discussion topics and a LEXIQUE. More information is available on our website at www.aquilafsl.com.
